Democratic Surge Threatens GOP Lead In Congress

Harriman Carries New York

By The Associated Press

A Democratic surge threatened Republican control of Congress early Wednesday after topping a long-time GOP bastion, the governorship of New York.

Unofficial figures showed the Democrats regained the Connecticut governorship as well as ending 12 years of Republican rule in New York.

They won three Republican seats—enough to give them a majority if the Republicans didn't unseat any Democrats—and took varying, sometimes see-saw leads, in three key senatorial fights.

That could bring the Senate, too, back under Democratic control if the party's candidates held onto their lead in Kentucky, Massachusetts and New Jersey—and didn't drop any senatorial places.

Republicans weren't conceding defeat, however, though President Eisenhower, paying a surprise call on a group of GOP campaign workers in Washington, said there "may be setbacks" for the party.

"They have nothing to do with the value of our cause," the President added.

Averell Harriman, long-time official in the Roosevelt and Truman administrations, swept to victory in the New York state governorship fight. He defeated Sen. Irving M. Ives, the hand-picked candidate of retiring Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, twice the Republican presidential candidate.

A huge turnout of voters, presaging off-year records in some states, took part in the 47-state election.

Mounting returns saw the lead change repeatedly in Senate fights in such states as New Jersey, Ohio and West Virginia.

A rundown of the main contests showed this picture in senatorial contests at 11 p.m. CST:

Kentucky—Veteran "Veep" Alben W. Barkley ahead of GOP Sen. John Sherman Cooper by some 36,000 votes.

Massachusetts—Republican Sen. Leverett Saltonstall running 40,000 behind Democrat Foster Furcolo with only 321 out of 1,954 precincts in.

VOTING BRISK, HEAVY DESPITE COLD AIR

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Voting was brisk and in most cases heavy Tuesday, despite inclement election weather in much of the Midwest.

A mass of cold, Canadian air moved into the nation as far south as Alabama, and rain, snow and cold winds pelted the Midwest.

In Illinois, cold weather failed to deter citizens from casting their ballots in the hot fight between Sen. Paul Douglas, Democrat, and Republican Joseph T. Meek for a senatorial seat.

CHICAGO (AP)—More than 1,000 employees of a Chicago manufacturing firm were reported to have voted Tuesday to disaffiliate from the United Electrical Workers (Ind.), which was expelled from the CIO in 1949 because of alleged Communist leanings.

Frank Cornacchia, president of the Local 1133, announced the action and said the workers at the Miehe Printing Press and Manufacturing Co. were "tired of belonging to a Communist outfit."

Cornacchia did not disclose the vote but said it was close. He said the National Labor Relations Board would be asked to conduct a formal plant election on the matter.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—More than 200 school children, wearing orange arm bands and clatching banks made of milk containers, trooped to the U. N. Tuesday to deposit pennies they collected over Halloween for the United Nations Children's Fund.

Officials estimated more than $100,000 was collected during the weekend "trick or treats" by about a million youngsters in 4,500 American communities.

State Voters Okay Three Amendments

CHICAGO (AP)—Illinois voters Tuesday gave majorities to three state constitutional amendments.

For approval each of the amendments need a majority of the total number of votes cast in the election, or two-thirds of the votes cast only on the amendment.

One of the amendments directs the legislature to redistrict the state representation in the House would be based on population and Cook County would have a majority of the seats. Representation in the State Senate would be based upon area and downstate Illinois would have a majority of the seats. The state has not been redistricted since 1901.

Another of the amendments would permit the state to sell or lease the Illinois-Michigan Canal or other waterways. The Illinois-Michigan Canal runs from the Chicago area to the Illinois River and has not been used for years.

The third of the amendments would lengthen the term of the state treasurer from two to four years.

The vote on the amendments: Reapportionment—1,728 of 9,775 precincts gave 319,908 for and 85,393 against.

Canals—1,650 of 9,775 precincts gave 302,292 for and 72,184 against.

Treasurer — 1,636 of 9,775 precincts gave 302,443 for and 72,916 against.

Expect Manning's Removal From Jury In Sheppard Trial

CLEVELAND (AP)—A tainted juror is expected to be removed Wednesday from Dr. Samuel Sheppard's murder panel. The trial was recessed over election day.

The juror is James R. Manning, 38, convicted 11 years ago of a sex offense. The state asked his ouster Monday on grounds he disqualified himself by his failure to reveal his past before he was sworn. The defense demanded proof of Manning's record and this was being readied.

Common Pleas Judge Edward Bluthin is expected to go along with the juror's ouster over vigorous defense objections. Ohio law permits a judge to discharge a juror who proves "disqualified" during a trial.

Sheppard, handsome 30-year-old osteopath, is accused of beating his wife, Marilyn, 31, to death last July 4. She was four months pregnant. The maximum penalty for murder in Ohio is death in the electric chair.

Pleading innocent, Sheppard claimed a bushy-haired stranger invaded his lakefront home, killed his wife and knocked him unconscious.

If Manning is ousted, an alternate juror will take his place. The trial began Oct. 18. Seven men and five women were sworn in as jurors last Thursday and the two alternates were seated Monday.

Adenauer Faces Political Crisis On Saar Settlement

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, facing the toughest political crisis of his career, Tuesday night lost another of his coalition allies in the parliamentary rebellion against his French-German agreement on the Saar.

The Refugee party, third largest in Adenauer's four-party government, announced it rejects the Saar agreement "in its present form." The agreement would "Europeanize" the Saar—German before World War II—while leaving it economically tied to France.

This decision will deprive Adenauer of 27 critical votes in the showdown battle in Parliament unless the Chancellor persuades the Refugee party to reverse its position.

The Free Democrats, second largest party in the Adenauer coalition, and some members of the Chancellor's own Christian Democratic party (CDU), already have rebelled against the Saar agreement.

Write-In Vote Elects U.S. Senator: First In History

COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP)—Strom Thurmond, 1948 presidential candidate of the States' Rights party, Tuesday night was elected U. S. senator in a Democratic write-in campaign.

It was the first time in history that anyone had been elected to either house of Congress as a write-in candidate.

Thurmond defeated Edgar Brown who was nominated by the South Carolina Democratic Executive Committee, two days after the Sept. 1 death of Sen. Burnet Maybank.

Thurmond voted for Eisenhower two years ago.

It was the first time the official Democratic candidate for a major office had been defeated in South Carolina since the post-Civil War Reconstruction Period. Thurmond, however, will go to Washington as a Democrat. He has promised to resign in two years and run then in a primary.

Barkley At 76 Claims Victory In Senate Race

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Former Vice President Alben Barkley, often called "Mr. Democrat," rolled up a big lead and claimed victory Tuesday night in his Kentucky race at age 76 to return to the U. S. Senate.

For Kentucky's eight congressional seats, three Democrats were reelected without opposition, two won races and a sixth was leading in his contest.

Republicans retained one seat, in the 3rd District of Louisville and Jefferson County, and were ahead in another, in the traditionally GOP 8th District of southeast Kentucky. The state's delegation in the House now is composed of six Democrats and two Republicans.

Barkley, speaking at his Paducah home, told a reporter he's certain he had won over Sen. John Sherman Cooper, Republican who ran for reelection with President Eisenhower's hearty endorsement.

Unofficial returns from 2,635 of Kentucky's 4,132 precincts gave Barkley 303,494, Cooper 247,605.

Cooper, first Republican elected to the Senate from Kentucky since 1924, had gone out in front in the early count. However the bulk of the early returns were from areas he carried in 1952. His margin in them Tuesday was lower.

Then Barkley went ahead.

ARREST WOMAN TRYING TO VOTE TWICE

CHICAGO (AP)—Police said Tuesday they picked up a woman trying to vote a second time.

"I thought you could vote as often as you wanted to," said Miss Callie McQueen, 25, Negro. "I wasn't sure I voted the first time so I wanted to vote again."

Sidney T. Holzman, president of the Chicago election board, said she might not be charged if it were determined she didn't know the law.

CHURCH DENIES BURIAL RITES TO AMEDEO

CHICAGO (AP)—Gus Amedeo, 26, who escaped jail, later shot and killed a policeman, and was himself killed by police guns Friday night, was buried Tuesday.

He was denied the burial rites of the Roman Catholic Church, in which he was reared. A few words were mumbled at his graveside by an undertaker in the presence of a sprinkling of relatives and friends.

Amedeo escaped from Cook County Jail last month. Once, on the verge of capture, he shot and killed Policeman Charles Annerino, Friday night, with the aid of a woman friend of Amedeo, police set up a trap and shot the killer.

Mallett Leads Wright: Nickell Tops Peterman

CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. Paul H. Douglas, Democrat seeking second term, built up a long lead over his Republican challenger, Joseph T. Meek, late Tuesday night.

The Chicago Sun-Times, which supported Douglas, stated at midnight that Douglas would be the winner.

Projections based on returns from 56 per cent of the state's precincts indicated that, if there is no shift in trends, Douglas would win by 352,000 votes.

Douglas ran up a large margin in Cook County, Chicago, his party's traditional citadel. Meek had an advantage in normally Republican downstate, but as the downstate count approached the halfway mark, it didn't match Douglas' Chicago plurality.

Meek, former head of the Illinois Federation of Retail Assns. and making his first bid for public office, told newsmen there was a late "upsurge" in his favor.

Less than half the downstate and Chicago suburban precincts—usually heavily GOP—reported at that time.

Returns from 5,510 of the state's 9,775 precincts gave Douglas 992,599 and Meek 754,910.

Douglas' over-all lead at midnight exceeded 200,000 votes.

Republicans in two other statewide contests appeared to be faring better than Meek.

Wisconsin's GOP Governor In Tough Fight For 3rd Term

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Republican Gov. Walter J. Kohler appeared Tuesday night to be in the toughest fight of his political life against Democrat William Proxmire. Kohler is seeking his third term.

Unofficial returns in Wisconsin's general election from 1,105 of 3,289 precincts gave Kohler 155,393. Proxmire 132,432.

The returns were mostly from out-state Wisconsin and included only 55 precincts in Milwaukee County which Proxmire supporters expected him to carry by a large margin. Milwaukee casts approximately 25 per cent of the state's total vote.

Democrats were leading incumbent Republican congressmen in two districts—Gaylord Nelson over Republican Glenn Davis of the 2nd and Henry Reuss over Republican Charles Kersten in the 5th.

Milwaukee Democrat Lester Johnson led in the 9th. The other six front.

Lohman Leads In Race For Sheriff Of Cook County

CHICAGO (AP)—Democrat Joseph D. Lohman took a commanding lead Tuesday night in the bitterly fought race for Cook county sheriff.

Returns from 1,203 of Cook County's 5,328 precincts gave Lohman 239,537 and Republican William L. Ruzel 182,371.

Of the 1,203 precincts reporting, 1,105 were in the City of Chicago and 98 were in the suburbs.

The race for sheriff had attracted statewide attention, particularly because of Gov. Stratton's all-out support for Ruzel.

Democrats also led in other principal races in Cook County, traditionally Democratic.

FIND SPANISH PLANE WRECKAGE

MALAGA, Spain (AP)—Searchers Tuesday found the wreckage of a Junker type Spanish air force plane and the charred bodies of 12 crewmen on a peak in the Ronda Mountains near Malaga.

A heavy vote estimated at about 433,000, was reported in Chicago, normally Republican suburbs.

Reports of heavy balloting came from many downstate communities.

If the vote from downstate equaled that of 1950, when the total was 1,670,000, it would give the state about 3,400,000—well under the 3,371,618 off year record of 1950.

BEVAN AND THE REDS

Recently, through the generosity of a popular American television program, Aneurin Bevan, left wing Labor Party leader in Britain, came into a good many of our homes.

As is usual with Brother Bevan, he tried to suggest that it is not Russia's fault but largely America's that we do not have a firmer peace in 1954. He wants us all to take at face value Soviet proposals for world disarmament, for free elections and unity in Germany, and so on.

There's no point in rearguing all these propositions with Bevan. But we ought to try to grasp once and for all what makes him so blind to the real world around him. Bevan is governed chiefly by his emotional impulses. We all have them, of course, but some of us keep them under fairly rational check and some do not.

Bevan is wedded to the pat formulas of doctrinaire socialism with a passionate, consuming fever. That explains his blindness.

For one thing, he sees Russian communism as a great Socialist experiment. And not even the mountainous volume of fact revealing the bloody brutality of the Soviet dictatorship at home and the ruthless course of conquest it pursues abroad can convince the British demagogue that the "experiment" is a menace to humanity.

He cannot shake the lingering notion that anyone working in the name of socialism is basically on the right track and ought to be believed. The Reds' string of broken promises makes no impact upon him. He always favors giving them another chance, 24 hours after they have kicked away the previous one.

Secondly, Bevan recoils from the real world because he sees it interfering with the Socialist experiment in Britain and the rest of Europe. When the Labor Party was in power in Britain and nationalization of major industries was going forward, the doctrinaire Socialists were happy. The outbreak of the Korean war, revealing nakedly the Communist purpose of conquest, plunged them into gloom.

Since then Bevan and his followers have consistently opposed vital defense measures and actually have decried an attitude of alertness by the West. For the neat Socialist blueprints can't be followed if arms must be made.

The tragic thing is that if communism triumphed because of slack Western defenses, neither socialism nor anything else short of communism itself would survive. Bevan's pretty blueprints would be burned in the first Russian bonfire.

It is difficult to imagine that a man who cannot understand that blunt fact could ever hope to regain his eyesight.

BOYLE'S COLUMN

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — In the great game of politics there is an old tradition that the defeated candidate must show himself a cheerful loser.

Thus, following protocol, several hundred candidates beaten in the elections today, will dry their tears following telegram to the winners. "The people have spoken. Congratulations on your splendid victory."

And to complete the phony atmosphere of sportsmanship, the winners—or one of their camp followers—will send back the following reply: "Greatly appreciate your cordial message. The great tasks that lie ahead require us all to think in terms of mutual performance rather than past partisanship."

This is all pure guff and nonsense. Both candidates know it, the people know it. It fools nobody. Why, then, do the politicians, election after election, go through these empty meaningless gestures of Oriental politeness?

A man who has lost a political election is, in terms of fury, the male equivalent of a woman scorned in love.

Almost invariably he feels he lost because of two reasons:

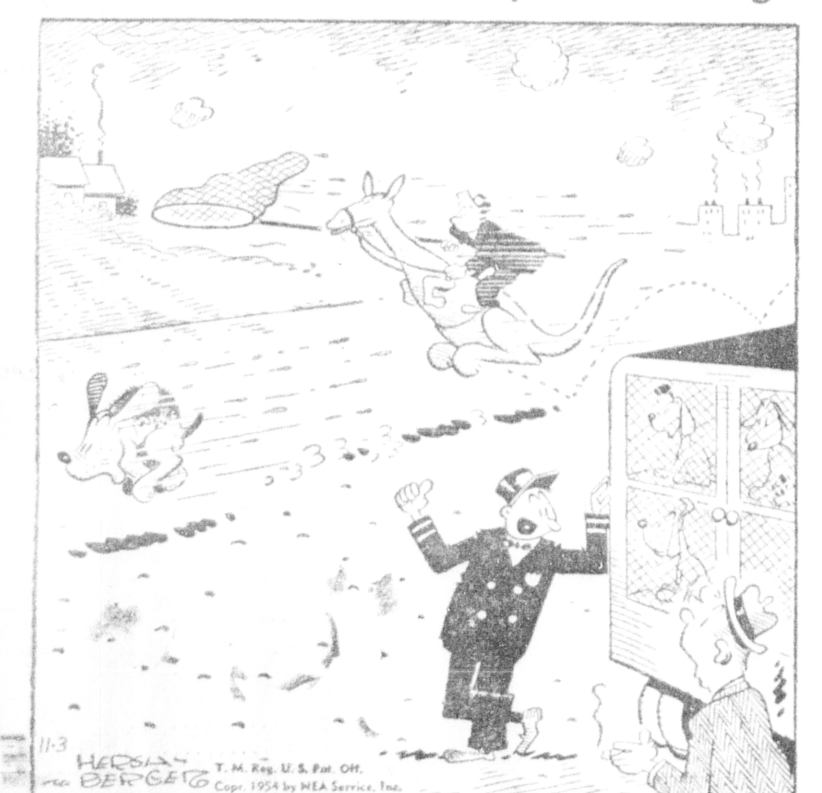

1. His own party friends knifed him by failing to carry out their pre-campaign pledges.

2. His opponent bought the election.

In such circumstances he is only fooling himself by trying to appear cheerful loser, when he feels in his heart he was let down by his pals and jobbed by the rascally enemy.

Then why not put a little more forthright truth in these post-election statements?

WASHINGTON (AP) — A letter you get late next month may provide a tipoff to your neighbors as to what salary bracket you were in last year.

Right after Christmas, the government will start mailing income tax forms and instructions to taxpayers. And these packets will tell anybody who looks at them what your income bracket was last year — whether you were in the under-$5,000, the $5,000-to-$10,000, or the over-$10,000 class.

This is how it works: If you reported on the simplest form an income of less than $5,000 last year, the government will mail you a new type of return. It will be about the size of an ordinary bank check. The return which you must file by April 15, 1955, is designed for easy handling by calculating machines.

If you reported a $5,000-to-$10,000 income last year, your new form will come — along with an instruction booklet — unwrapped. The package will bear a red stripe a quarter of an inch wide.

Finally, if you told the government your income last year was over $10,000, you also will receive a no-envelope packet. But in this case it will carry a quarter-inch-wide yellow stripe.

There are some exceptions to this system. For instance, Farmers, as well as business firm proprietors and partners, will have a blue stripe on the outside. Farmers will have a green stripe.

In addition, the under-$5,000-type cards will be mailed only to people:

1. Whose whole 1953 income came up from wages and salaries, plus up to $100 in such things as dividends and interests, and the usual withholding deductions. These installment plan tax payments are taken out of most people's checks every pay day.

2. If some of your under-$5,000 income last year came from other sources, however, you won't get by with the short return in the sealed envelope. Even if your income included some such trifle as $3 for the rental of an abandoned shed, you'll graduate to the red stripe class, and have to make out a longer form.

Why all this red and yellow stripe business?

Internal Revenue Service officials say it was adopted to speed up office routine — make it easier to send the right forms to the right people.

Some complaints have been received from people who don't like the possibility of others knowing, in a general way, about their income. The internal revenue people don't see much danger of this happening.

They point out that malmen, who would see all the envelopes or striped returns, are federal employees forbidden by law to tell what they know about such things as taxpayers' income.

And as for others who might spot the red or yellow stripe, or who might pick up an envelope and tell from the feel it contained an under-$5,000 form, a spokesman said:

"I suppose that a prying person in an apartment house might learn something, but it would be pretty hard for anyone else to do so."

Manners Make Friends

If you ever have reason to suspect that a friend may regret having told you something about her personal life, never bring up the subject yourself. Friends, sometimes in a low moment tell things they later wish they hadn't.

When they do they appreciate having the matter seemingly forgotten.

PETER EDSON'S Washington News Notebook

Visitors Galore—Cowboy Needed—Drop Charlie?
Target Date—Booing Winnie—GOP Plug

By PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA) — The parade of foreign dignitaries to Washington is to be so heavy this fall and winter that they're talking about putting a traffic control desk in the State Department's Office of Protocol, to keep the celebrities from running into each other.

President Eisenhower had no more than returned from Denver than President Tubman of Liberia and Prime Minister Mohammed Ali of Pakistan arrived. Their visits overlapped.

Next on the list was Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, Oct. 27-29.

Queen Mother Elizabeth of Britain will be in Washington Nov. 4-10, during her three week visit to the U. S. and Canada.

Prime Minister Yoshida of Japan is now scheduled to overlap the queen mother's visit. His trip to Washington was postponed many times during the year, but it's now set for Nov. 8-10.

Premier Pierre Mendès-France of France is due the week of Nov. 15-19, to give or take a few days in either direction, depending on how affairs shape up for him at home.

Austria's Chancellor Dr. Julius Raab will follow Nov. 21-24, just before Thanksgiving.

Sri John Kotelawala, prime minister of Ceylon, is due Dec. 6-9. The process on will let up during the Christmas holidays, but Col. Paul Maguire, president of Haiti, will be here Jan. 26-29.

Prime Minister Mohammed Ali of Pakistan, on his official visit to the United States, took time out to buy his young son a pair of toy six-shooters.

"As long as you're going to have to fight Indians," the prime minister was told by National Press Club President Ernest Vaccaro, "it's probably just as well you have a cowboy in the family."

After Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson had made his celebrated bird-dog speech in Detroit, a wag in the Pentagon sat down at his typewriter and gaged up this fake directive, for top-secret circulation: "Usage of alphabetical code designators: Able, Baker, Charlie, Dog, etc. in dispatch form is hereby modified by dropping the designator 'Dog.' No further reference to canine nomenclature will be permitted to avoid any possible misinterpretation. Further consideration is being given to dropping 'Charlie.'"

Somebody in the circulation department of the Democratic Digest got a little previous and made up an address plate to mail a subscription of the magazine to JIM FOLSON, GOVERNOR, MONTGOMERY, ALA.

A copy of the Digest bearing this address got into the hands of Alabama's present Gov. Gordon Persons. He tore it off and mailed it back to Democratic National Chairman Steve Mitchell with this memo:

"Don't rush me, boys. Jan. 17, 1954, is the target date."

A correspondent in London reports in a personal letter:

"I was rather startled to hear Churchill boomed when his face appeared in the newscast the other night. This was the first time this has happened since I came to London at the end of the war."

The Sensational live television broadcast of President Eisenhower's cabinet meeting to hear the report from Secretary of State John Foster Dulles naturally gave the Washington wags a workout.

"The commercial for the program was obvious," wrote one reporter. "The longest, sustained commercial that ever got by the FCC," wrote another.

On the question of whether the program might get a sponsor for a regular showing, there were many suggestions.

"Dixon-Yates might take it over," said one radio man. "They might call it The Electric Hour," said another.

A second suggestion for a sponsor was "Corn Products Refining Co." for the "Corn Flakes Hour." Olive Clapper, Washington representative for "CARE"—The Corporation for American Remittances to Everywhere—recently came back from an inspection trip of CARE operations around the world.

While in the Philippines Mrs. Clapper visited President Mag-saysay and talked over refugee problems with him.

"The appointment was at 10:30 in the morning and I talked with him for half an hour," she said. "When I left I felt that the meeting had been very successful. But the next morning I read in the paper that President Mag-saysay had canceled his entire schedule from 11 o'clock on because he had become ill."

"I hope it wasn't from something I said."

A NEW TWIST using fresh cranberries for Thanksgiving—apple-cranberry salad.

By GAYNOR MADDOX

NEA Food and Markets Editor

When our Boston friends the Nathaniel Sperrers took us to the Cranberry bogs near Cape Cod, that was a bright red experience. Out of it came this different way of getting fresh cranberries into the great Thanksgiving dinner menu.

Apple-Cranberry Thanksgiving Salad

(Yield: 8 servings)

Two cups raw cranberries, 1 orange quartered; 1 cup canned applesauce, 2 envelopes unflavored gelatin, 1/2 cup boiling water, 1/2 cup chopped walnuts, 1 cup diced celery, salad greens, mayonnaise.

Using medium blade of food chopper, grind cranberries and orange (rind and pulp); add sugar. Mix well. Soften gelatin in cold water, let stand 5 minutes. Add boiling water to gelatin, stirring until dissolved. Combine cranberry mixture, applesauce, walnuts and celery; gradually add dissolved gelatin; mix thoroughly. Pour into 1 1/2-quart ring mold, which has been rinsed in cold water. Chill until firm. Unmold on salad greens. Serve with mayonnaise.

Combine pumpkin, applesauce, sugar, salt and spices. Beat eggs; add scald milk and 1/2 cup cream; add slowly, mixing well. Pour into 9-inch pastry shell. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 45 minutes, or until inserted knife comes out clean. Cool. Whip remaining cream and use as garnish for top of pie, sprinkling it with nutmeg.

THANKSGIVING DINNER:

Grape and orange cup, roast Bellsville turkey, oyster stuffing, giblet gravy, glazed Louisiana Vams, green beans with sautéed almonds, buttered white onions, hot rolls, butter or margarine, apple-cranberry salad, Indian pudding with vanilla ice cream, coffee, tea, milk, raisins, nuts, minis.

On our tour of New England we found another unusual form of a traditional Thanksgiving recipe.

Applesauce Pumpkin Pie

One cup canned or cooked strained pumpkin, 1 cup light brown sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 teaspoons cinnamon, 1 1/2 teaspoons nutmeg, 1/4 teaspoon ginger, 4 eggs, 1 cup heavy cream, 1/4 cup milk, 9-inch unbaked pastry shell.

Combine pumpkin, applesauce, sugar, salt and spices. Beat eggs; add scald milk and 1/2 cup cream; add slowly, mixing well. Pour into 9-inch pastry shell. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 45 minutes, or until inserted knife comes out clean. Cool. Whip remaining cream and use as garnish for top of pie, sprinkling it with nutmeg.

Problem of Too Few White

Blood Cells Is Under Study

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

Written for NEA Service

A lady has recently written to ask for a discussion on too few white blood cells, the cause of this condition and the medical term for it. Others have asked similar questions, especially on the possible relation of the low number of white blood cells to the disease known as leukemia.

This is a somewhat bewildering subject. In reading this discussion I hope all will realize that it can be discussed only in the most general terms and that many highly trained investigators are spending much of their lives studying the human blood and how it behaves.

GRANULOCYTOPENIA is the tongue twisting name usually used to describe the condition in which the white cells of the blood (leucocytes) are fewer than normal. There is also a disease known as agranulocytosis in which one of the symptoms also consists of a lessening in the number of leucocytes in the blood.

Everyone has white cells in the blood where they exert an important function, particularly in combating infection. There are several kinds of white cells; the numbers can be counted and the kinds studied, the latter by smearing a small amount of blood on a glass slide, staining it and looking at the smear under a microscope. Normally, there are about 7,500 white cells in a cubic millimeter of blood and there is a fairly constant relation between the different kinds of cells.

IN THE PRESENCE of infecting germs the number of white cells is usually increased and counting them is often, therefore, an aid in diagnosis—in appendicitis for example. This increase is called leucocytosis.

Many cases of granulocytopenia have resulted from drugs or medicines. This is a puzzling thing because it is only the occasional person who gets such a reaction but it does seem to be a sort of individual poisoning. Recovery usually takes place. Agranulocytosis is also a condition in which the number of white cells is lessened and this is usually ushered in with a sore throat.

SO FAR AS IS known neither granulocytopenia or agranulocytosis is related to leukemia. In the latter some of the white cells grow wild, they are generally increased in number—sometimes enormously—and they appear in the blood in immature and abnormal forms. The subtleties of the process and the special kinds of cells present define the particular name assigned to the leukemia and influence to some extent the outlook.

Although much is known concerning the behavior of the leucocytes of the body there are many gaps in such knowledge. Probably time will reveal much that we do not know concerning the cause of the changes which develop.

I found him on the set of "The Admiral Harkins Story" at Republic. He is a salty fellow with pink cherubic cheeks, lively eyes and white mustache. Dressed in his blues and two-star braid, he sat near the camera and watched as Alexis Smith, playing his wife, received a radio report that his ship had sunk in World War II.

That was the U.S.S. Princeton. Late in 1944, Hoskins, came aboard the ship, his first carrier command after a career in Navy aviation.

On his second day, a Japanese dive bomber dropped a 500-pound bomb on the flight deck. It tore through the hangar deck, setting off gasoline stores and torpedoes. The Admiral stayed on board to help direct the fight to save the ship. The fire reached the store of depth charges, which erupted with a tremendous blast. Hoskins was blown to the deck, his right foot dangling by only a tendon. A doctor, dazed himself, severed the tendon without use of morphine.

Hoskins recalls it was "The worst pain I have ever experienced."

He started campaigning in the hospital for a return to active duty. He told Adm. "Bull" Halsey: "The navy doesn't expect a man to think with his feet. That blast didn't knock off my head."

"Fortunately, I had Halsey on my side," Hoskins told me. "But I must say there was no real opposition to my return to duty."

Waverly Man, Ohio Girl Wed In Cleveland

WAVERLY—Fall colors and velvet gowns on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 23, were the setting for the wedding of Miss Joyce Margaret Heilman and Lieutenant (jg) William Samuel Alderson when they repeated vows in the St. John's Lutheran church at Bellevue, Ohio.

Miss Heilman of Cleveland, Ohio and a former Bellevuean, is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Boyer of rural Bellevue.

Mr. Alderson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orin C. Alderson, Waverly, Ill.

The Rev. T. Rene Meyer read the double ring ceremony before a background of candelabra, palm and white chrysanthemums in gold vases.

The bride was given in marriage by her oldest brother, Charles L. Heilman, while Mrs. Roland Morris played traditional wedding marches "Clair de Lune," "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and "Chopin's Etude in E" solos.

"The Wedding Prayer," "Through the Years" and "Bless This House" were sung by Mrs. Charles L. Heilman, a sister-in-law of the bride, while Robert Smith sang "The Lord's Prayer," at the close of the service.

The bride wore a gown of soft velvet with a fitted bodice, scalloped neckline and chapel length train. Her long calla lily style sleeves had points over the wrists, and the neckline was finished with Italian embroidery, with simulated pearls and gold beads. The skirt was banded with the same needlework, and her simulated pearl crown held a fingertip veil of illusion, touched with lovers' knot bows. She carried a cascade of white roses centered with an orchid.

Attended By Two
Her twin sister, Miss Jean Heilman, was maid of honor in the wedding of Alice blue in similar style but with short sleeves and no train. She wore a velvet crown in the same color as her dress and carried a Colonial bouquet of talliesman roses.

Best man was the groom's father and ushers were F. Edward Elliott and Richard Boyer.

Yale Coach Says It Couldn't Happen Again

SPORTS TRAIL

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK (AP)—The thought of death failed to terrify Wilbur Shaw. He had met it face to face so many times, even challenged it, that he refused to be browbeaten into a morbid fear of the man with the scythe.

He knew he would lose eventually, and there was a certain fatalism about his attitude toward that final meeting which, at one time at least, he expected would find him huddled in the wreckage of a racing car.

It was ironic that when the violent end he anticipated did arrive it was the result of a routine flight in a small airplane, far from the excitement of the race track which was so dear to him.

If there was one regret he had, it was his inability to continue his career as a race driver. The last time we saw him, which was last spring, he still spoke yearningly and hopefully of once more sitting behind the wheel of a roaring monster in the 500-mile Indianapolis Speedway classic, although he knew in his heart the passing of the years had dulled his reflexes and that a severe heart attack had made such an ambition out of the question.

But, as president of the Speedway, he stayed as close to the game as he could, and probably more than once sneaked behind the wheel of a big car for a thrill spin to feel once again the thrill of speed, which was his life.

They don't come any finer than the little guy with the big, grating grin and matchless sense of humor. Little is used with reservations. He was small in physique, but in every other sense he was a big man, and a gentleman.

Even his physique was misleading, as he was superbly proportioned, with muscles like steel cables, that you forgot his physical stature and thought only that if there ever was trouble you'd want him on your side.

He and Tony Hulman, the owner of the track and another gentleman of the same mold, each spring were in the habit of coming to New York to throw a party for the press.

It was one of the nicer parties anywhere, and it was not tossed with the idea of publicity. After all, they got little publicity out of it.

They just liked to do it, that's all. It gave them a chance to renew their friendships, and they themselves got a bigger kick out of it than their guests, if possible.

Wilbur would buzz about, visiting this table, then that one, always with a quip or fresh joke to leave 'em laughing, his eyes twinkling and his whole attitude that of a man who knows that life is short, enjoy it while you can.

Despite his fabulous career and brushes with death, Shaw was not a reckless man in the sense that he was careless. Never was there an automobile race driver more meticulous in his preparation for a race.

He knew every inch of his car, even X-rayed each part to uncover any hidden flaw in the metal. And after taking every possible precaution, he left the rest to his own amazing skill. His skill never failed him. Occasionally his car would.

He will be missed, will the big little man who will remain in memory as so vibrantly alive. He came about as close to being the indispensable man as anyone could come, at least as far as the Indianapolis race is concerned. It almost literally had become the "Shaw 500."

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—No matter what happens in the Army-Yale football game here Saturday, the East's big battle, Jordan Olivar is sure it'll never top what happened to him and his Villanova squad at West Point 10 years ago.

"It couldn't happen again," said the Yale head coach during a luncheon Tuesday.

"My Villanova team had won four of our first five games, but under the war accelerated program, we had a vacation break late in October. When classes resumed on Nov. 1, we called out the candidates, and couldn't believe our eyes when only one veteran showed up, Bucky Williams.

"He explained that everybody else had been transferred to various naval and Marine stations.

"This was a Tuesday, and we had a game to play on Saturday. In desperation, we addressed the student body, and 32 prospects reported on Wednesday. We spent the 55 minutes allotted to us for practice that day finding out the positions to place the players and it wasn't until Thursday that we got down to business.

"I didn't have the heart to tell the team that we were playing on Friday as we sat in the bus. I explained that we were going to a little town in New York West Point, to play Army. We quickly shut the doors and headed north."

That was the Army team that had some fellows named Glenn Davis, Doc Blanchard and Barney Poole among others.

"On the way up," continued Olivar, "we established our strategy. Our best 11 players were to play the first quarter; our next best were to play the second quarter and the subs were to fill in as needed. We used the first and second teams as planned, but at the half, the score was 62-0 in favor of Army.

"In the dressing room, I had to say something, so I explained to our quarterback that I thought he had made a mistake; that with third down and 19 to go, just before the half ended, he should have relied on a trick play, instead of a quarterback sneak, on which he had made seven yards.

"You know what he did. He asked me 'What other play today has gained that much?'"

"Anyway, as we came out for the second half, Andy Gustafson, an assistant Army coach, and in charge of the Cadets that day, was very kind. He suggested we shorten the periods. We did and held Army to 21 points in that half. The final score was Army 83-0.

"After the game, one of our boys, a 135-pound veteran who had seen combat action and had been cited for heroism, told me 'It sure was a lot safer in one of those foxholes than it was out there this afternoon.'"

One Of Smallest Squads In History Reports To Combes

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—One of the smallest squads in University of Illinois basketball history, 14 men, reported to Coach Harry Combes Tuesday for the 1954-55 basketball season.

Missing was Captain-elect Ed Makovsky, senior forward who dropped out of school because of scholastic ineligibility.

Included among the 14 are six lettermen from last year's squad which finished third in the Big Ten race. They are Jim Dutcher, Bruce Brothers, Paul Judson, Bill Ridley, Elmer Plead and Morris Sterneck.

Squad members from 1954 include Phil Judson and Bob Leigh. Among the newcomers are Bill Boneck, transfer student from Illinois' Navy Pier branch, and sophomore Harvey Schmidt and Dick Rapp, Kankakee; Bill Altenberger, East St. Louis; George Bon Salle, Chicago Lovola, and Jim Burke, Homestead, Pa.

Combes expects more players to join the squad at the conclusion of the football season.

Illinois opens its schedule Dec. 2 against Butler University.

A's Won't Operate Ottawa

OTTAWA (AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics have discontinued operations in Ottawa, base for their International League farm club, it was announced Tuesday.

The step, which may mean the end of triple A baseball in the capital, was announced in a letter from Channing Ellery, attorney for the American League club, to T.P. Gorman of the Ottawa Nationals baseball club.

VOCAL CITIZENS

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—Private citizens being able to speak their minds at city council meetings surprised a Dutch mayor when he visited Grand Rapids.

Jonkheer Rene J. Q. H. Roell, mayor of Hamsted, The Netherlands, told Grand Rapids Mayor George Veldman, also a native of the Netherlands.

"You provide seats and say they have a voice in your proceedings. In my country, if a spectator says anything at a city council meeting, he is escorted out by a policeman."

Rain Promises Soft Course For International

LAUREL, Md. (AP)—Rain and raw winds swept Laurel race course Tuesday to promise a soft grass course for the seven American and foreign horses competing in the third running of the $65,000 Washington, D. C., International Wednesday.

The International has never been won by an American bred horse, and the horsemen from overseas are generally agreed that the 4-year-old French filly Banassa will win the mile and one-half classic.

Some believe that C. V. Whitman's 3-year-old Fisherman will be the favorite when the field lines up at 3:15 p.m., CST.

The presence of Eddie Arcaro on Fisherman won't hurt his chances. King of the Tudors was No. 1, followed by Queen Elizabeth's horse, Landau, Northern Gleam, Fisherman, Brush Burn, Banassa and Norman.

There will be no television or radio broadcast of the International.

Bears' Scouts Sat Next To Packer Spotters

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Chicago Bears' scouts at last Saturday night's Green Bay-Philadelphia National Football League game got a double dose of information—they sat next to the Packer spotters.

Assistant coaches Tom Hearden and Ray McLean said Tuesday the Bears' contingent refused to move from their seats at Philadelphia's Connie Mack Stadium.

"We couldn't move because that's where our phone was located," said Hearden. "So they just sat there and listened to what we said to our bench and scouted the game at the same time."

The Bears and Packers meet Sunday at Chicago.

Knee Injuries Take Heavy Toll Among Top U.S. Grid Stars

By BARD LINDEMAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Football knee injuries this season have disabled two of the South's finest players, men who have been captains of their teams and potential All-Americans.

Georgia Tech's great center and leader, Larry Morris, and Tennessee's tailback Jimmy Wade are hobbled by bad knees. Morris may get back into the lineup this year. Wade is very doubtful.

These are but two of a legion of knee cases who sit on the sidelines with their knees taped and fight to get into the lineup or play through the season in the shadow of the injury threat.

The legion taps great athletes—Joe DeMaggio, Doc Blanchard, Jackie Robinson, Beau Jack, Glen Davis, Marion Motley, Warren Spahn, Terry Brennan, Mickey Mantle, Tommy Thompson, Ferris Fain, George Kell, Kyle Rote and others.

John Johnson, New York Giant trainer, said of all injuries, knees give a professional football club the most trouble.

"We have about 10 with bad knees," he said. "Ten that we tape and reinforce. We use that elastic tape. It works great with us. It reinforces the joint and still lets them bend freely."

"The human knee was not designed for the game of football and for this reason the game is played with an unusually great number of knee injuries," said Preston Stahly, president of a knee brace company (Athletic Products Co.).

The National Federation of State High School Athletic Assns. reports that over 50 per cent of the time lost to practice and games because of injuries is the result of knee trouble. The association said 19.6 per cent of all football injuries are knee injuries. This includes not only face and dental injuries in frequency.

Doc Wendler, Brooklyn Dodger trainer who played 11 years of football said "any knee that hurts is a bad knee injury."

Wendler explained that 90 per cent of the knee injuries come from a blow on the outside of the knee with the damage coming on the inside of the knee, usually the ligaments or the cartilages.

"The weakest point in the body, for the pressure put on it, is the knees," he said. "The knee was not reinforced. We use that elastic tape."

J.H.S. Wrestling Card Begins December 8th

Jacksonville High School begins its first wrestling program December 8th when they tangle with Quincy. Coach Irwin August is getting the mat sport started in the local school and is sure it will help any boy who gives it a whirl.

It has been a factor in the local intramural program since August came to the school a few years ago but this will be the first test for the boys in inter-school competition.

The seven card schedule includes schools who have had the sport for several years and are expected to be tough for a school just starting. However, the J. H. S. coach isn't giving an inch. He expects to get additional help when the football season ends.

He would like to carry 36-40 boys and this will give these lads a chance to win a varsity letter for the first time. The weight divisions start at 96 pounds with three boys being carried in each division.

On the local schedule is the Sectional Tourney at Granite City. If the local boys come through in this meet, the next stop will be the

Football Briefs

Ann Arbor, Mich. (AP)—Michigan's star center, Jim Bates, who recovered from a bout with pneumonia earlier this season, was sent to the University Health Service for a checkup Tuesday after he developed a cold.

It was not determined immediately whether the cold will keep him out of the Illinois game here Saturday.

Coach Benny Oosterbaan kept his Wolverines mostly indoors Tuesday as light snow fell over the practice field. They worked mainly on defense against Illinois' fast backfield of J. C. Caroline, Abe Woodson and Mickey Bates. Michigan also sharpened up on a pass defense.

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Big Bob Konovsky, Wisconsin tackle from Cicero, Ill., missed Tuesday's work-out because of a knee injury as the Badgers prepared for their encounter with Northwestern here Saturday.

Konovsky, 6-2, 215 pound junior, was bumped in Wisconsin's 13-7 defeat by Iowa last week. Trainer Walt Bakke was hopeful he would be ready for at least part-time duty against the Wildcats.

End Jim Temp, who also received a leg bruise last week, was back in action.

Full of spirit and fire, the Badgers worked on defense against Northwestern plays and spent considerable time rehearsing and reviewing their own offensive assignments.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Illinois' football squad scrimmaged briefly against Michigan plays Tuesday as Coach Ray Eliot held down contact work to avoid further bruising his Illinois.

Guard Wally Vernasco may not start against the Wolverines because of a sprained ankle. Tackle Bucky Tate also has a bad ankle, but probably will play Saturday.

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Once-beaten Notre Dame, concerned over a poor 31-yard punting average in five games, held a long kicking drill Tuesday.

Coach Terry Brennan continued to work Paul Hornung, former quarterback, at fullback behind regular Don Schaefer. Guard Ray Lemek was returned to the first team after his improved play in the 6-0 victory over Navy.

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Three players previously reported injured worked out in scrimmage Tuesday as Northwestern prepared for its Big Ten game against Wisconsin Saturday.

The three are center John Damore, end Bob Morman and fullback Bobby Lauer.

Two juniors, Bob King and George Moyers, worked out at the first string left halfback starting assignment vacated by Jim Troglio, out for the rest of the season because of injuries.

A trophy will be awarded the sponsor of the winning team. Small individual trophies will be given to winners of the doubles, singles and "all-events." The entry fee is $3.25 per event. Entries close November 11, 1954.

Mantle Undergoes Check On Knee

NEW YORK (AP)—Mickey Mantle, the Yankees' long-hitting outfielder, has undergone another check-up on his injured knee and received a clean bill of health, the Yankee management said Tuesday.

Mantle injured a cartilage in his right knee during the 1951 World Series and subsequently had it operated on.

Dr. Daniel L. Yancey, an orthopaedic surgeon of Springfield, Mo., made the latest examination.

Summer Tan Becomes Ill

Summer Tan is owned by Mrs. Russell A. Firestone. The Garden State was his final race this season.

Illini Coach Hopeful: Faces Michigan Sat.

FAN BREEZES

BY BILL MERRIS

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. Nov. 2—Encouraged by their team effort, despite a losing performance against Purdue, Illinois football forces today turned to preparations for Saturday's traditional battle with Michigan at Ann Arbor.

Coach Ray Eliot felt his squad turned in its best effort against the once-beaten Boilermakers, even though All-American halfback J. C. Caroline had to watch the entire contest from the sidelines because of a badly bruised shoulder.

"We're not in good physical shape after a tough contest with Purdue, but we have to be encouraged about the future because of things observed in the Purdue game.

"Our blocking was sharper, especially on those touchdown drives of 71 and 73 yards, tackling was improved, and overall team play better," Eliot said.

The Illini coach is hopeful that Caroline will be able to go top speed against the Wolverines this week. That, of course, will depend on improvement in the shoulder injury which was so severe last Friday that J. C. could not lift his left arm above his head.

Illinois also might be bolstered by return of Gary Francis, sophomore left end from Bloomington, and Mike Guinan, sophomore center from Chicago (Mt. Carmel), who have been sidelined by injuries.

Abe Woodson, who gained 98 yards against Purdue last week, is nursing a shoulder injury, and guards Bucky Tate and Wally Vernasco will be slowed by recurrence of ankle injuries, but not is expected to miss the Michigan tilt.

Eliot plans little, if any, contact work during drills. "We're not in shape for much rough work and can't risk further injuries for the Michigan game," he said.

Caterpillars May Wrap Up Title Friday Night

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—The favored United States team has a chance to wrap up the world basketball title when it meets unbeaten Brazil here Friday night.

The 14-day round-robin tournament had an off day Tuesday.

The Peoria Caterpillars, representing the United States, have a slight advantage over the Brazilians but it could be offset by the home court advantage and the partisan crowd.

The U. S. must meet Israel Thursday night prior to its important clash with Brazil. The Israeli is not expected to cause much difficulty.

Brazil, however, may find tough sledding in Uruguay the same night. Sports rivalry between the two nations is extremely strong and nothing would please Uruguay better than to knock off their South American neighbors.

Virginia Tops Petersburg 34-0

VIRGINIA (Special)—Coach Paul Morris' Virginia Redbirds ended their football season last night as they defeated visiting Petersburg 34-0 in a 11-man game.

Jim Smith raised his season's touchdown total to near 20 as he scored twice for the winners. Damotte added three TDs to his season's total.

It was a 0-0 battle for the first period. However the Redbirds scored in the second period when Smith set it up with a 15-yard run, then plunged over from the 3-yard mark. The conversion was good.

The Redbirds broke loose in the third period with three touchdowns. Damotte scored a pair on runs of 17 and 68 yards and Smith added his second on a 40 yard gallop.

In the fourth period the winners scored their final TD on a pass from Marr to Damotte good for 20 yards.

The Virginia line played outstanding ball throughout the contest. The Petersburg outfit gained only two first downs through the tough Redbird forward wall.

Seven members of the hosts played their last game. It was also a costly contest for coach Morris. Denny Young, a regular on last year's basketball team, fractured his ankle and be lost to the Virginia club most of the season.

REDS HOLD OUT

HERACLEON, Crete (AP)—There are still 12 Communist rebels, two women and 10 men holding out in the Cretan mountains, although the Communist civil war officially ended five years ago. After an ultimatum to surrender they demanded a general amnesty.

With the football season rapidly drawing to a close fans begin to turn their attention to the hard-work where their favorites have begun to practice. The high school, college and ISD have a couple remaining games with the "oval" ball but Routt has hung up the pads and taken to the inside sport, after a very successful gridiron season.

Coach John Chapman has had his "non-football" eagles in the gym for over a week. Monday began the second week for the Crimsons and coach John reported over 70 boys are out nightly. This means there will have to be some cutting before the footballers report in two weeks. This makes his nightly sessions even more interesting. The boys realize cutting time will be here before long and are putting up a battle to remain.

Coach Al Miller called practice for the Illinois College eagles Monday. Some 30 candidates reported to the opening session and will hold daily workouts. More will be added when the football season ends a week from Friday. With coach Al and his first assistant, George Taylor, having their hands full communicating between the doctor's office and the gridiron, the first two

Track Star To Speak To Union Meet At Grace

Dr. Glenn Cunningham will speak at a union meeting, sponsored by the Jacksonville Ministerial Association, at the Grace Methodist Church, next Monday night, November 8, at 7:30 o'clock.

His parents' faith in God made a lasting impression on Glenn, who is known to millions of Americans as the greatest American miler of our time.

Over thirty thousand young people in high schools and colleges will wear the former Olympic champion's "Clean Living and the Race of Life" during his ten-day tour of Illinois.

Vronsky-Babin Piano Team To Play Thursday

The Annie Merner Chapel will be the setting November 4, at 8 p.m., for the duo-piano team of Vronsky and Babin. Vronsky and Babin, married in real life, bring to the local musical community a true marriage of artistic talents. This unit on the concert series is sure to bring enthusiastic response from the Jacksonville audience.

Reviews of their performances in other cities throughout the United States, over a period of many years, indicate that this two-piano team always produces excellence in music, free from bombast and exaggeration. It is said that the mutual understanding between Vronsky and Babin makes their music always flexible and never mechanical. Many hearers say that this couple makes the two-piano recital beautiful instead of merely capable or clever.

Vronsky and Babin bear about the same relation to the two-piano field that the Lumis do to the drama.

A large local audience is sure to attend this outstanding performance at the Annie Merner Chapel.

Women have had a lower death rate than men for many years and since 1930 the lives of women have, on the average, been lengthened far more than those of men.

WHEELS THE VOTERS IN

BUTLER, Pa. (AP) — Sam Bernstein, owner of a hotel in nearby Saxonyburg, said several days ago "I'm going to get the people out to vote if I have to take them in a wheelbarrow."

Tuesday Bernstein, a Republican, did just that with the help of Democrat Ed Bauman.

They wheeled two hotel residents, Mrs. Agnes Parker and Roy Bernhard, one clock from the hotel to the polls.

Harriman Carries N. Y. In Governor's Race

Michigan — Veteran Republican Sen. Homer Ferguson, a top Eisenhower lieutenant in the Senate running slightly behind Democrat Patrick V. McNamara.

Illinois — Sen. Paul Douglas, Democrat, 160,000 ahead of Republican Joseph T. Meek with 3,444 of 9,775 precincts reporting.

New Jersey — Rep. Charles R. Howell, Democrat, 60,000 votes ahead of former Rep. Clifford Case, Republican.

Ohio — Another neck-and-neck between Rep. George Bender, Republican, and Sen. Thomas Burke, Democrat, with Bender leading.

Democrats were ahead, too, in key governorship races—by a 50,000 vote margin in Massachusetts and by 27,000 in Ohio.

The Republican gubernatorial candidate was running ahead in Wisconsin.

In the first major contest decided, Delaware rejected a last-minute personal appeal by President Eisenhower and went Democratic straight down the line.

Democratic Sen. J. Allen Frear Jr. trounced Herbert B. Warburton in the Senate race. Eisenhower had endorsed Warburton.

In addition, Democrats took a House seat from the Republican column in Delaware. The winner was Harris B. McDowell Jr., who defeated the Republican incumbent, Mrs. Lillian I. Martin.

The second Republican House defeat came in Indiana, where former Democratic Rep. Winfield K. Denton staged a comeback and unseated Republican D. Bailey Merrill.

The third House overturn was registered in New York, where Herbert Zelenko, a Democrat-Liberal, captured the seat which Rep. Jacob K. Javits, Republican-Liberal, left to run for New York attorney general on the Ives ticket.

A little later the Republicans scored their first overturn when William C. Cramer unseated Democratic Rep. Courtney W. Campbell in Florida.

Probably the biggest oddity in the early returns was the election of a write-in candidate for senator from South Carolina, the first time a candidate who wasn't on the ballot ever won election to Congress.

It came about through a Democratic family fight, and it sent Gov. James F. Byrnes' candidate, J. Strom Thurmond, to the Senate as a Democrat over the party's official nominee, Edgar A. Brown. Thurmond was the presidential candidate of the anti-Truman States' Rights party in 1948.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt, Republican, familiar to millions because of the McCarthy-Army hearings, held a small lead over Democratic opposition in his bid for reelection in South Dakota.

The recurring refrain from state after state was the unexpectedly big turnout, often in the face of bad November weather.

Mothers Exchange Babies To Right Hospital Mixup

LONDON (AP) — Two young mothers decided Monday night the doctors were right — a hospital had mixed up their baby sons five weeks ago, giving each the other's child.

Mrs. Vera Bowers, 22, and Mrs. Sheila Read, 24, agreed to make permanent the trial baby switch they had arranged for a 24-hour period.

"Both Sheila and I feel as if a ton weight had been lifted from our shoulders," Mrs. Bowers told a reporter.

"We thought the babies might not take to us but they are as bonny and happy as can be."

"Thank God, our days of uncertainty are over," said Mrs. Read.

The two families plan a joint christening at which their sons will trade names. Baby John, the one Mrs. Bowers got by mistake, will become Kenneth, the name his own parents picked for their son.

Baby Kenneth, so named by the Reads, will become John.

PRESIDENT SPENDS QUIET DAY IN WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower spent a quiet election day in his White House office and accepted an invitation to dine Tuesday night—and presumably receive election returns—at the home of Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey.

Along with the President and Mrs. Eisenhower, Secretary and Mrs. Humphrey asked Robert J. Cutler, White House aide in charge of national security matters, to dinner.

It was business as usual at the White House for Eisenhower during the day. He and Mrs. Eisenhower, legal residents of New York, mailed their absentee ballots last week.

TWO FAMOUS WIDOWS MEET

HYDE PARK, N. Y. (AP)—Two famous widows met at an informal luncheon here Tuesday, 15 years after they last saw each other, at that time with their husbands at their sides.

The guest was Queen Mother Elizabeth of Britain, now on a tour of the United States. Her host was Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, widow of the late president.

Something like 45 million or more citizens were estimated to have used their right of the ballot in an election that may have a major bearing on whether Dwight D. Eisenhower and Adlai E. Stevenson will run again for the White House in 1956, and on their chances if they do.

The balloting determined whether Republicans or Democrats would fill 37 Senate and 43 House seats and the 33 governorships.

Democrats needed a net gain of only two seats plus the promised support of Independent Wayne Morse of Oregon to capture Senate control. In the House, they required a gain of three.

Early voting in many areas was surprisingly heavy, even though the people had to trudge through snow, rain or cold in numerous sections of the East and Midwest.

The previous high for a nonpresidential, off-year election was some 42,300,000 votes in 1950.

Advance indications had pointed toward a possible trend back to the Democrats, in keeping with the tradition that the party out of power picks up strength in Senate and House in the off-year voting. Yet the GOP appeared unquestionably to have staged a stretch sprint.

In some states, hot local issue, and local personalities, were the dominant factor. Yet the outcome, nationwide, will be interpreted in some degree as a plebiscite on the popularity of the Eisenhower administration and its legislative program and policies.

The President himself turned in an absentee ballot by mail several days ago. He and Mrs. Eisenhower are legal residents of New York. Eisenhower told a New York rally Oct. 22 it would be a straight Republican ticket for him.

Stevenson, the 1952 Democratic presidential nominee and now considered the party's titular head, voted without fanfare at Half Day, Ill., near his rural northern Illinois home.

Former President Harry S. Truman was out early at an independence, Mo., precinct. Truman commented: "It will be the right answer again."

The election brought 1,011 candidates for 502 major offices into the political arena.

Most of the states elected members of their legislatures and many counties and municipalities picked their local governments.

Proposals involving school segregation, legalized bingo, bigger old age pensions and Korean War bonuses were on the ballots in some states.

Planes, Ships Continue Search For Missing Plane

NEW YORK (AP)—Scores of planes and ships today continued to scour the North Atlantic for a missing Navy plane carrying 42 persons, amid unconfirmed reports of flare and debris sightings.

There also were what one or two radio listeners believed to be SOS calls, but as in the purported flare and debris sightings, Navy officials emphasized there was little to raise hopes.

Many other ships and planes listening on the radio distress frequency heard nothing resembling an SOS.

Authorities also explained that there always is floating debris to be found and said this meant nothing until it could be studied carefully. Eager searchers also sometimes think they see flares when none are there.

The lost Navy Super-Constellation left Patuxent, Md., Saturday night for North Africa with many servicemen, and some wives and children.

First stop was to be the Azores, where some of the passengers were to change planes.

A routine report made by the big plane 90 minutes after its take-off was the last heard from it. At that time it was about 480 miles east of Baltimore.

It had enough fuel to remain aloft until 10 a.m. Sunday.

FRANCE REINFORCES TROOPS AT ALGERIA

ALGERS, Algeria (AP)—France Tuesday sped 5,000 troops as reinforcements to already heavily garrisoned Algeria in an effort to throttle bloody terrorist outbreaks of the last two days.

The clashes, which have been common in the French protectorates of Morocco and Tunisia, overflowed into Algeria, a French department, Monday. At least nine persons were killed in 30 concerted predawn attacks by Arab nationalists.

The toll in nationalist attacks and political murders in French North Africa during the last four days was at least 39 killed and more than a score wounded.

THE STORY: Greg Sawyer, 26, leaves a steady job working for his stepfather to become a chauffeur for Wade Daggett, a wealthy invalid. Daggett wants to see the country, realizing that he has not time to live. Greg wants to do something on his own. Back in Daggett's mind is a hope to see the western town where he was born. They have a trailer and they are traveling west, but northward through New England.

A FEW days later and a few hundred miles farther north, in Massachusetts, the night turned cold. Next morning there was a film of frost over the ground.

"No sense in freezing," Greg commented. "Let's drive south. Sensible tourists are probably still hibernating."

But from the moment he awakened, Daggett proved to be intractable. Later, Greg laid all that happened to Daggett's wayward mood that morning. If Greg had not had to argue with him about keeping warm, and finally bundle him into an overcoat almost by force, they would have been on their way long before the airplane came into view, a pinpoint of light that became a large bird and then circled lower and lower overhead.

"It's in trouble," Daggett said, shading his eyes as he peered up at the sky. "It's making a forced landing."

The old man was cold and Greg tried to hurry him into the car where the heater would warm him. "The motors sound all right to me. Come on." He put his hand on Daggett's arm but the latter was in a rebellious mood and shook it off. He was not to be badgered.

"It is landing," he said, triumphantly. The plane came lower, the wheels touched, bumped over the uneven ground, and rolled to a stop. Even Greg had forgotten his hurry now. Something queer was happening. A man got out of the plane and began to stagger away without looking back with a roar of its powerful motors. The plane taxied across the field and rose almost over the heads of the two watchers. It circled the field once before winging its way north.

"That's a phony set-up," Greg commented. "Not a town in sight. Looks like a smuggling job to me. Hadn't you better get into the car now?"

But Daggett continued to be unreasonable. "I am curious," he retorted, "and you might as well stop tugging at my arm. I am not going until I know what that man is up to."

HE did not seem to be up to anything. He was slightly built, hatless, without an overcoat. He turned up the collar of his jacket, tried futilely to pull it together, and thrust his hands into his pockets. As he walked he hunched from side to side.

"He is either injured or ill," Daggett exclaimed, and as he spoke the man sat down abruptly on the ground, his head falling forward on his chest.

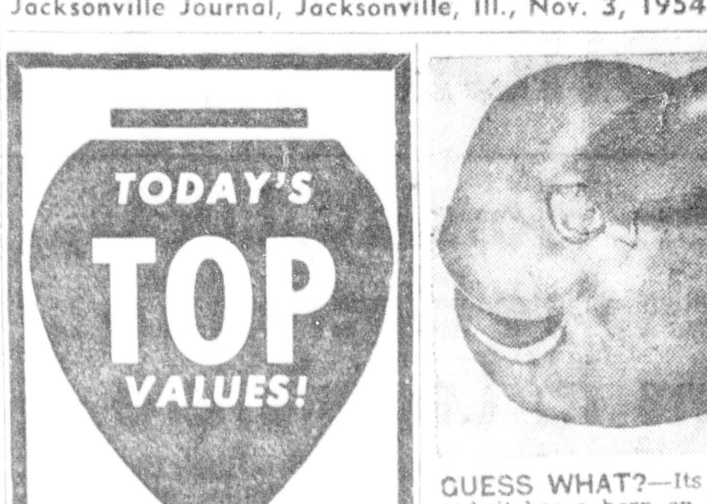

Greg wanted no part of it. Anyhow, it was no concern of his. The sensible thing to do was to keep hands off—strictly. But Daggett was obviously not in a sensible mood, so he capitulated. "I'll take a look. You get back in the trailer."

"I'm coming with you." "Oh, no, you're not," Greg grinned to himself. I sound like Florence Nightingale, he thought in amusement. "In the first place, you can't walk over that field. In the second place, you don't know what is wrong with the guy."

As a result of Greg's well-meaning ministrations, Daggett was so bundled up that only the tip of his nose and one plump cheek were visible.

"I'm coming," Daggett repeated with infuriating obstinacy.

Republican Candidates Win All Morgan County Offices

Green, Horsley, Lucas, Drach Are Elected To Terms In Legislature

Veteran Morgan County Representative Hugh Green appeared certain to be reelected to the Legislature, along with Rep. G. William Horsley and Allen T. Lucas, both of Springfield, upon the basis of unofficial returns from Morgan and Sangamon counties. Green and Horsley are Republican incumbents, while Lucas, a Democrat, will be serving his first term.

State Senator George E. Drach of Springfield piled up a lead over his Democratic opponent James C. Craven.

Rep. Green led the ticket in Morgan county with Horsley, Lucas and Rossiter trailing in that order. In Sangamon county Rossiter, the second Democratic candidate, was also lagging behind the other candidates, three of whom were to be elected to represent this district in the General Assembly.

Green, who was first elected to the legislature in 1933, apparently had won a 12th term as a state representative.

The 101 precincts out of 189 in

Sangamon county gave Horsley 28,074, Lucas 21,806, Green, 21,736, and Rossiter 18,520.

In this county returns from 28 precincts out of 44 gave Green 8544, Horsley 5777, Lucas 6256, and Rossiter 3396.

Drach led Craven in Morgan county, 4,502 to 3,115, with 27 precincts reporting. In Sangamon county he led in 101 precincts 16,735 to 11,848.

Court House Remains Solidly GOP; Andrews For Sheriff High Man

All seven Republican candidates for Morgan county offices were elected yesterday in a strong surge of voting that again sustained the county's reputation as a Republican stronghold.

With GOP state candidates encountering rough going, all trailing with but one exception on the basis of incomplete returns, the Morgan county ticket nailed down a grand-slam victory early in the evening.

Three veterans of previous campaigns and three newcomers in county politics who were making their first races were chosen to serve in court house jobs. Six of the newly-elected officers were chosen for full terms—the other will fill an unexpired term for county commissioner.

County Clerk George T. Douglas, also elected to his fourth term, defeated John M. Clark of Arcadia precinct. Douglas polled his usual imposing majority.

F. J. (Jack) Andrews, a deputy sheriff for several years, was elected sheriff by an imposing majority over Lowell Smith. Andrews topped the entire ticket, sweeping most precincts by large majorities.

Andrews is a veteran of World War II and the Korean conflict, having served as an officer in the Air Corps. He was recalled to duty in the Korean war, rejoining the sheriff's force on his return.

Rowe Wins First Race
Richard Yates Rowe, Jr., the county treasurer-elect, is a practicing attorney in this city. He is the son of former state treasurer Richard Y. Rowe. The younger Rowe, making his initial start as a candidate, won over William H.

Ricks.
Wilfrid E. Rice was returned to his duties as county superintendent of schools, a position to which he was appointed several years ago when John Deem resigned to accept a position in the state superintendent's office. Supt. Rice, running for the office the first time, defeated Oliver L. McElrath, principal of the Woodson elementary school.

Commissioner Fred Points of Winslow, serving this year as chairman of the county board of commissioners, was returned to office by virtue of his victory over Joseph H. Stillwell of Centerville precinct. Points was elected for a full term of three years.

Rigg To Fill Out Term
Hobart Rigg, another newcomer in political ranks, was named to fill the unexpired term of the late Arthur Acom as a member of the county board. Rigg took an interesting contest from Harry Kilham. The newly elected commissioner, who has about two years to serve, is a farmer residing southwest of Jacksonville.

Fenstermaker, Douglas, Andrews, and Rowe will enter upon new terms Dec. 6.

Points and Rigg will start their terms in a few days, as soon as their commissions arrive from the governor's office.

Supt. Rice's new term starts next August.

Sheriff-elect Andrews will succeed Sheriff Earl Hembrough, who under the law could not be a candidate to succeed himself.

Rowe will succeed county Treasurer John Irlam who was elected to the office four years ago after serving as a deputy sheriff.

Congressman Sid Simpson of Carrollton, Republican, was re-elected yesterday by an estimated majority of at least 20,000 votes over James A. Barry of Quincy, his Democratic rival.

On the basis of incomplete returns last night, Congressman Simpson was carrying each of the 14 counties in the wide-flung 20th district which covers western and northwestern Illinois.

Returns compiled at midnight showed Simpson leading by 13,046 in 206 precincts out of 365 precincts in the district. Almost every return was adding to the congressman's plurality.

Pike Democrats Sweep Entire Field Tuesday

PITTSFIELD—Pike County went along with the rest of the country yesterday and incomplete, unofficial returns indicated that the Democrats made a complete sweep Tuesday.

Returns were slow coming in. There were practically no reports on the top end of the ticket, but 25 of the 34 precincts in the county reported on the county ticket to give the Democrats strong majorities. None of the three Pittsfield were included in this group, however, and the picture could change when the final count is in Wednesday. But observers from both parties said at midnight that "any change is highly doubtful."

Winthrop B. Anderson and Edson R. Atwood, both Democrats, were unopposed for county judge and county superintendent of schools respectively.

Virgil Durham, Democrat, was leading James K. Shinn 3221 to 2394 in the race for county clerk.

Marshall Roberts, Democrat, had a more than 500 lead over his opponent, Ray W. Lyman, Republican. The count was Roberts 2923, Lyman, 2366.

Wayne W. Lightle, Democrat, had a lead of almost 250 over Virgil H. Griffith, in the sheriff's race.

Unofficial vote 15 of 28 precincts.
